Introduction

The Freedom of Information Act 1992 (the Act), which came into effect in 1993, created a general right of access to documents held by State and local governments.

The objects and intent of the Act are to:

- Enable the public to participate more effectively in governing the State
- Make the persons and bodies responsible for State and local government more accountable to the public.

To meet these objectives, the Act requires local government agencies to publish an information statement to be updated annually. The City of Gosnells' (the City) Freedom of Information Statement serves as that information statement.

Copies of this document can be obtained by accessing the City's website, or by visiting the City of Gosnells Civic Centre.
